South Side Boy Arrested.
A South Side boy, George Hill, was arrested last night shortly before 9 o'clock, by a deputy United States marshal, charged with jumping on and off cars of the Wheeling Railway Company in that part of town. He was committed to the Ohio county jail.

The Lantern Slides To-night.
This evening, at the Opera House, the amateur photographic fraternity of Wheeling, together with lovers of the artistic and the beautiful in photography, will assemble to witness the exhibition of the American Amateur Photographer's prize set of views representing the prize winners of 1898, 1896 and 1897, and including marines, landscapes, architectural and horticultural subjects. The doors will be open at 7:45, and the exhibition will commence at 8:30. The stereopticon will be operated by Mr. Charles C. Schmidt and Rev. N. S. Thomas, of St. Matthew's, will announce the views. The Opera House has been donated for the occasion by Manager C. A. Felner.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.
Events in and about the City Given in a Nutshell.
Rough Riders' road race this evening.
Opera House to-night—Prize lantern slide exhibition.
By order of the Retail Grocers' Protective Association the groceries of Wheeling will close at noon to-morrow, Decoration Day.
A very large crowd was attracted to Wheeling Park for the concert by the Wheeling Opera House Military band yesterday afternoon. The Wheeling & Elm Grove handled the crowds in good shape.
The funeral of the late Elizabeth Muldrew Howell will occur this afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the home of her parents, No. 151 Sixteenth street, with interment following at Stone Church cemetery.
Prof. Crago will deliver the Memorial address on Tuesday at Waynesburg, Pa. The celebration will be under the auspices of McCullough Post G. A. R. Waynesburg is Prof. Crago's native town.
Mrs. J. M. Morris, of Kansas City, formerly of Wheeling, a daughter of the late William Collins of this city, died last week. She was born here and went with her husband to Kansas City twelve years ago.
The annual entertainment by the kindergarten and junior department of St. Joseph's academy will be held at the Carroll Club auditorium next Wednesday evening. Reserved seats can be had at Milligan, Wilkin & Company's.
A dramatic entertainment will be given at the school hall in West Alexander, to-morrow evening, by a number of young people of the town. The play is entitled "Enlisted for the War, or the Home Guard." The cast is an efficient one and the affair promises to be a great success.
Commissioners G. R. E. Gilchrist, C. H. Simpson and S. C. Patterson give notice that they will open bids for the $4,000 issue of bonds by the town of Elm Grove on Thursday, June 29, at the mayor's office. There will be forty bonds of $100 each, running twenty-five years, but they may be called in at any time after ten years if desired by the municipality.

AN OLD SOLDIER INJURED.
Joseph Porter Narrowly Escapes a Terrible Death.

Last night about 11:30 o'clock, a city-bound motor on the Wheeling & Elm Grove railway struck and injured Joseph Porter, an old soldier, who lives out the pike. The accident occurred near the Letherwood station. Porter was lying across the track and the motor-man on coming in sight of him stopped the car, but not before Porter had been bruised about the body. His escape from being run over was narrow. During the day Porter was observed on the track, and the car operators were instructed to watch for him. It is not thought, however, that he intended suicide, and his condition led to the belief that he laid down to rest. He was conveyed on the motor to the Sixteenth street station and later to the City Hospital. Dr. Bullard was unable to tell at the time if Porter suffered internal injuries. His nose was badly bruised and he was cut across the breast.

NORTH END BLAZE
Sunday Morning Totally Destroyed a Row of Three Houses.

Yesterday morning about 1:30 o'clock, the two-story frame dwellings at $1, $5 and $5 Main street, just below Jonathan's ravine, were destroyed by fire. They were owned by D. G. Morgan, inhabited by Hungarians, and valued at about $1,500. The entire loss, including the household furniture of the tenants, amounted to about $2,000.

The origin of the fire is said to have been from a kitchen stove in one of the houses. The row was very old and it burned like tinder. The firemen responded promptly to the call and they were instrumental in saving adjoining property from destruction, but the frame row owned by Mr. Morgan was burned to the ground.

A Still Alarm.
Last night at 10 o'clock a still alarm called the Eleventh street chemical to 1115 Market street, the home of Mrs. Paulina Beuter, where a lace curtain had caught fire. The blaze had been extinguished with small loss before the arrival of the chemical.

Holding the Fort.
Through Sunday and last night Constable Henry Thomas maintained a faithful watch at ex-Squire George Arkle's office on Sixteenth street, lest trespassers should enter. The particulars of this interesting suit for possession of the property were noted in Saturday's Intelligencer. The constable will swear warrants to-day for people who interfered with him in the discharge of his duties, and the litigation promises to be lengthy and interesting.

Try One Yourself.
Our clothes are not made-to-order clothes, but made-to-fit garments. They are the quintessence of correct quality, fit and finish. Costs nothing to drop into the store and try on a Suit. When you see it on you in the mirror, you'll admire the fit and acknowledge the elegant air of superiority it gives you, the natty distingue effect it carries—the finer distinguishing points of high-grade goods. Naturally, you'll want to keep it on, and that will be an easy matter to arrange. We show as considerate regard for your pocketbook as we do for your appearance. They are better clothes, but no higher in prices than the other sorts. No compulsion to buy, however. Our invitation is a cordial one. Accept it and decide for yourself. No matter whether your boy is the quiet stay-at-homer, the out-of-door tree-climber, stout or thin—his Clothes, Hat or Shirts are here. Five times the quantity you will find elsewhere.
